INTRODUCTION

Nowadays, language is one of important tools of communication that is used to convey the message or the intent that the transmitter wants to say to the listener or receiver. Someone’s ability to use good language is can added the value for that person. Language is considered to be a system of communication that using symbols and words in expressing a meaning, using sound, idea or thought (Daulay, 2019). Language is used by many people in the world as their aids in greeting to other people. According to Halliday, language is in the first instance a resource for making meaning (Halliday, 2014). Harmer and Pourhosein Gilajani in Leong & Ahmadi, they said that we are all as human being has a complex process in human communication. A person needs communication if we want to say something to other people. A speaker says something related with the goals that the speaker has to deliver in listener. Speaker and receiver can use language for their necessity in daily life (Leong & Ahmadi, 2017: 34-41).

According to Bahadorfar and Omidvar (2014), there are several reasons why speaking must be mastered by English learners. First reason because speaking is most crucial part in learning and teaching English. Second, for language learners very important in mastered speaking. Third reason is speaking is instrument that be used in evaluate the ability of foreign or second language learners.

According to Daulay (2018), students can make mistakes in deliver their ideas in speaking English in teaching learning process. Speaking in English learning has become an important topic to discuss. The better a person’s speaking ability, the better the person’s ability to communicate orally. Furthermore, the first-grade students at senior high school should capable in speaking English, at least in daily conversation. Unfortunately, there are still many people or students who do not dare to speak English. This is because they are still shy in speaking English. This case also happened to students at SMA Swasta Nurul Iman Tanjung Morawa. Through preliminary observations made by the researcher at the school, the researcher conducted a brief interview with the English teacher at the school and the teacher said that there were still so many students who did not dare to speak English. They are embarrassed when the teacher asked them to speak in English and avoid it. To solve it, the researcher wants to do research that can find the problems and the causes of students’ difficulties in speaking English.

Based on the explanation above, the researcher tried to find 1) What are the students’ difficulties in speaking English? 2) What are the causes of the students’ difficulties in speaking English, and 3) What are the solutions to solve the students’ difficulties in speaking English at Tenth Grade of SMA Swasta Nurul Iman Tanjung Morawa?

LITERATURE REVIEW

Definition of Speaking

According to Harmer, speaking is the ability of people to speak fluently and can delivered they are feelings to other people, the ability not only in knowledge of language features but also the people have ability to process language and information (Harmer, 2007). Likewise with Mackey, he said that speaking is an activity to express something that is not only concerned with rhythm and intonation, but also an activity to convey information accurately and can be easily understood by others (Mackey, 2007).

Based on the theories above, can be concluded that speaking is an ability of someone who is give positive effect to increase good speaking skill. Speaking not only about rhythm and intonation, but also how we delivered our feelings or something to other people and convey the right meaning. In speaking, if someone wants to be listened or be responded with interlocutor, contents or words that used must include good manner.

Function of Speaking

There are three functions of speaking, namely talk as interaction, talk as transaction, and talk as performance (Richards, 2008).

a. Talk as interaction Talk as interaction usually carried out between one person to another as a social function.

b. Talk as transaction Talk as transaction focus on what someone said or did. The main purpose of talk as transaction is to deliver information or ideas accurately and clearly so that the interlocuter can easily understand what the speaker tries to say to the listener.

c. Talk as performance
   Talk as performance actually has function as transmit information, or refers as public talk.

The Component of Speaking

According to Brown (2001), there are some aspects that should be recognized in learning speaking.
a. Pronunciation
   According to Gilakjani (2012), pronunciation is a rhythm, intonation, and stress to producing sounds.

b. Grammar
   According to Hirai (2010), grammar is the way to produce a sentence and make good language.

c. Vocabulary
   Vocabulary is words that person master in a language.

d. Fluency
   Fluency is measuring tool used to see a person’s ability to speak.

e. Comprehension
   Comprehension is a skill that has in analyzing news, and can formulate the representations the meaning of sentence.

The Characteristic of Successful Speaking Activity

To make the students carry out in speaking successfully, the students need to fulfill the characteristics of successful speaking activity.

a. Students speaking more
   To make students more active in speaking, a teacher must give more time to listen to his/her students.

b. Balance participation
   In teaching and learning activities, every student must be given the same opportunity to speak to deliver their opinions about the subject matter being discussed.

c. High motivation
   The student will be more active during teaching and learning activities in the classroom are fun and make them have a role in the class. How the way the teacher teaches the students is also very important to build high motivation from students itself.

d. Language is at an acceptable level
   In this case, a teacher must be able to provide understanding to students so that they are able to convey information, responses, or ideas in clear language and can be understood by other students.
The Factors of the Difficulties of Speaking

According to Brown, there are some difficulties in speaking English, namely (Brown, 2001):

a. Clustering Fluent speech is phrasal, not word by word. Learners can organize their output both cognitively and physically (in breath groups) through such clustering.

b. Redundancy
The students often do the redundancy because they are confused what will they say. However, the student has an opportunity to make meaning clearer through the redundancy of language. Learners can capitalize on this feature of spoken language.

c. Reduced forms Contractions, elisions, reduced vowels, etc., all form special problems in teaching spoken English. Students who do not learn colloquial contractions can sometimes develop a stilted, bookish quality of speaking that in turn stigmatizes them.

d. Performance variables
In performance variables, the students often do performance hesitations, pauses, backtracking, and corrections. Learners can actually be taught how to pause and hesitate when they were talking.

e. Colloquial language
Sometimes in colloquial language, the students still do not know about the words, idioms, and phrases of colloquial language and that they do not get practice in producing these forms.

f. Rate of delivery
The other salient characteristic of fluency is rate of delivery. In this case, the students must acceptable speed along with other attributes of fluency. Through rate of delivery, a teacher will know the progressed of the students’ ability in speaking English.

g. Stress, rhythm, and intonation Sometimes, the student has a difficult in this case. Stress, rhythm, and intonation actually give the effect when someone speaks. The three of them, show the fluent or not in speaking English.

h. Interaction
When the students want to improve their speaking ability, automatically the students must do interaction with other people to help them in speaking English. Through interaction, the students will know their shortcomings in speaking.
METHOD

This research was conducted at Tenth Grade of SMA Swasta Nurul Iman Tanjung Morawa, which is located on Jalan Pasar XIII Desa Limau Manis, Deli Serdang, Sumatera Utara. The researcher used qualitative method in this research. According to Tracy (2013), qualitative research method focuses on the thick description of context and often emerges from situated problems in the field. This method also called as an artistic method, it is because the process of research is more of a nature art (less patterned), and it is called an interpretative method because the data of research is more concerned with the interpretation of data that found in the field (Sugiyono, 2013).

Technique of Collecting the Data

In this research, the researcher was collected the data use observation, interview, and questionnaire.

a. Observation

During the research, the research was be one of part in the class that was observed the condition and learning process, and also the researcher will not teach directly. The researcher was observed the class to know the students’ difficulties in speaking and the cause that faced by the students.

b. Interview

The researcher was used interview because the researcher wants to know the deeper information from informants about situation that can be analyze through observation.

c. Questionnaire

The questionnaire was use as document that consists of the questions for all samples in research. The informant was filled the questionnaire relate with instructions that give by the researcher. The researcher gave 15 statements in questionnaire sheet. The questionnaire used Likert Scale that was categorized into Strongly Agree (SA), Agree (A), Disagree (D), and Strongly Disagree (SD).

Technique of Analyzing the Data

a. Data Reduction

Reducing data means summarizing, choosing the main things, focusing on important things, and looking for themes and patterns. With thus, the data that has been reduced will provide a more detailed picture clear, and make it easier for the researcher to collect the data, and search for it when necessary.
b. Data Display

After the data has passed phased of reduction, the next step is displaying the data. In qualitative method, data display can be done in form brief descriptions, charts, relationships between categories, flowcharts and so on. The one most frequently used to present data in qualitative research is a text like narrative text.

c. Conclusion Drawing/Verification

The initial conclusions were stated that it is still temporary, and will change if not found strong supporting evidence at the collection stage next data. But, if the conclusions are put forward at that stage preliminary, supported by valid and consistent evidence at the time of the researcher back to the field of collecting data, then that conclusion presented is a credible conclusion.
